A CONFERENCE OF THE CONE

Export and Commission Company's Representatives.

A LIST OF THOSE NOW HERE.

Representatives Of All Mills With Which That Concern Is Connected Have Been Invited.

In pursuance of an established custom the Cone Export and Commission Company has invited all members of the firm and at least one representative from every mill with which the company has business connections, to meet in this city for an exchange of views, a discussion of the year's business and plans of operation for the future. In addition to those who reside in Greensboro, the following representatives of the Cone Export and Commission Company are in the city to attend this annual meeting:

Mr. P. A. Carter, New York and Greensboro, N. C.
Mr. Chas. F. Chase, Indianapolis, Ind.
Mr. Geo. S. Campbell, Baltimore, Md.
Mr. W. W. Farish, New York City.

Mr. J. W. Sanford, San Francisco, Cal.
Mr. G. E. Soule, Boston, Mass.
Mr. L. F. Woodruff, New York City and Greensboro, N. C.

On tomorrow evening a collation will be served at the Benbow to which a number of citizens have been invited. The Telegram is glad to have these gentlemen in Greensboro. We are not ashamed of the showing the city has made since they last visited it, and confidently believe they will find more marked signs of growth and development at their next annual meet.

We find that of the mill men expected here by tomorrow, there are already in town, Mr. Wm. H. Williams, of Pilot Cotton Mills, Raleigh, N. C., Mr. Robt. R. Ray, of McAden Mills, Lowell, N. C., Mr. William Entwistle, of Pee Dee and Roberdel Mfg. Co's, Rockingham, Mr. J. L. Scott, of Sidney Cotton Mills, Graham, and Mr. S. Bryant, of Naomi Falls Mfg. company, Randleman, N. C.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 28, 1898.

The news is now given to the public that the Aguinaldo government in the Philippines is tottering and that the star of the Philippine chief is waning. It is said that his former friends are forsaking him and that the opposition openly threatens to form a new government. Well, let her totter!

Keep your seats and do not get excited. Wonderful and unexpected things are happening; but the sun will continue to rise in the east and set in the west, and spring time, with its beautiful flowers, green leaves and sweet odors, will surely come again, notwithstanding the fact that J. M. Mewbourne has resigned the superintendency of the state penitentiary.

The incoming legislature will have the most difficult task to perform of any legislature, perhaps, in the history of the state. The people will expect great things—more than in reason ought to be expected. We believe its action will be wise, and if it should fail to do all the people expect, or think should be done, we believe that when the results are seen the people will have cause to rejoice that they again put legislative power in the hands of the democrats.

Of the meeting of school teachers and educational men, which is now being held in Raleigh, the Morning Post says: "Our educators have captured our city and are now in possession. We welcome them, for they are a noble army of faithful servants, engaged in the work which bears directly and momentarily upon the welfare of the people. May their meeting result in measures and methods which will arouse still greater interest in the important subject which enlists their daily toil."

Tomorrow is the sale day of the C. F. & Y. V. Railway. There is, and has been, much speculation as to who will be the purchaser, and under what system the road will be operated in the future. Whatever may be the outcome, we may be allowed to hope the present management will remain in charge of the road. No more courteous or efficient body of men were ever associated for the management of any enterprise than the officials of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railway. The same may be truly said of the operatives of this road, engineers, conductors and other trainmen. We hope they will all retain their positions.

Next Sunday will be the first day of the year 1899. It will be a day for forming good resolutions and turning over a new leaf. Many people who for years have made resolutions on the first day of January to leave off evil habits of various kinds, will try it again next Sunday. It is fitting that the day falls on Sunday, and this fact should be helpful. Good resolutions alone and unsupported will save no man who is bound fast in the clutches of sin. It is all important that God be taken into the effort and His aid invoked in the undertaking. Where there's a will there's a way, and if you have the will to do and be better, the Supreme Ruler of the universe will show the way. Attend some one of the city churches next Sunday, if you have not been a regular attendant, and that act alone will help and strengthen you to execute other good resolves.

MR. SIMMONS THANKED.

Meeting of State Democratic Executive Committee.

Pursuant to a call by the chairman the state democratic executive committee met in the senate chamber in Raleigh last night. There was a full attendance, either in person or by proxy.

The following resolution offered by Col. Paul B. Means was unanimously adopted by a rising vote:

Resolved, That we, the State Democratic Executive and Central Committees of North Carolina, hereby express our thanks to all the voters of this state and especially former republicans and populists who voted with us in the last election for white supremacy and good government in North Carolina and Hon. F. M. Simmons for his superb and successful management of our recent political campaign, on these issues, in accordance with the plans laid down by our state democratic convention on the 26th day of May, 1898.

F. D. Winston, Esq., offered the following resolution which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of the committee and of the democratic party of North Carolina, be extended to John W. Thompson, Esq., secretary of the democratic state executive committee, for his able and efficient services rendered in the last campaign and also to the efficient corps of clerks employed by the committee.

Hon. F. A. Woodard was elected a member of the central committee to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Col. W. F. Green.

Mr. Daicels moved that a committee of three be appointed to draft resolutions relative to the death of the late Col. W. F. Green.

The chairman appointed the following committee: F. S. Spruill, D. H. McLean and Thos. W. Mason.

After an exchange of views on various matters of party interest, the committee adjourned.

A GEORGIA NEGRO

Suggests a Unique Plan For the Protection of His Race.

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 27.—The Voice of Missions, a paper published by Bishop Turner, of the African Methodist Church, contains an article by H. R. Butler, a prominent negro physician here, under the head "Here's Hell Broke Loose," which says:

"I say, let us appeal to foreign powers to intervene in the interest of humanity. Let this country memorialize all the great powers in the interest of oppressed and suffering humanity in this country. Let them present the wrongs of the twelve million colored people for the past twenty-five years in every possible detail. Then let this great council select a representative delegation to present these memorials to heads and legislative bodies of all the great powers of the world. Let us pray that they interfere for the sake of suffering and oppressed humanity. This may reflect greatly upon the country that has spent millions of money and many lives for the sake of humanity in Spanish colonies, when it is unable to extend humane treatment to its own people. But this, our last hope, is all that is left for us to do, all the courts having decided against us. The national government says it is powerless, while the white so-called Christian Church looks on and assents to the barbarity practiced upon colored people. Yes, let us lay our case before England, Spain, Mexico, Turkey and other powers, and I firmly believe something will be done to check this mob rule injustice."

FAT TURKEYS, BUT NO WINE.

Sam Jones Sets Out a Great Spread For Railroad Officials.

Cartersville, Ga., Dec. 27.—Rev. Sam P. Jones, the noted southern evangelist, carried out his plan today of giving a Christmas dinner to leading officials of southern railroads. Among those present were President Smith, of the Louisville and Nashville, President Scott of the Georgia and President Smith of the Atlanta and Western. In telling his guests that no wine would be served, the evangelist assured them that he would set before them the fattest turkeys in the land, with the richest cranberries. The affair closed by all of the guests singing "Railroad Route to Heaven."

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters, and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Two Pointed Questions Answered.

What is the use of making a better article than your competitor if you can not get a better price for it?

Ans.—As there is no difference in the price the public will buy only the better, so that while our profits may be smaller on a single sale they will be much greater in the aggregate.

How can you get the public to know your make is the best.

If both articles are brought prominently before the public both are certain to be tried and the public will very quickly pass judgment on them and use only the better one.

This explains the large sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The people have been using it for years and have found that it can always be depended upon. They may occasionally take up with some fashionable novelty put forth with exaggerated claims, but are certain to return to the one remedy that they know to be reliable, and for coughs, colds and croup there is nothing equal to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. If It Were Proper

for ladies to wear Gents' Underwear, nice, linen bosom shirts, etc., we would advertise our offerings today under the head of bargains. But as men are such matter-of-fact things, we are compelled to simply state that we have a broken stock of underwear in all wool, derby ribbed and camel hair that cost us $9 and $12 per dozen. These goods we will close at 65 cents per garment. This price is good as long as the goods last.

Colored and White Shirts

Sizes 14 to 17, $9.00 and $12.00 goods, at 65 cents per garment.
This price will interest you if you need any thing of the kind, but if you do not it will pay you better to be looking after something else.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

J. W. Merritt went to Durham at noon today.

John B. Farriss advertises all leftover holiday goods at and below cost.

Some ladies' coats and capes have been found at Brown's and are going at very low figures.

Miss Lillian Massey, of Rock Hill, S. C., is visiting Miss Carrie McNairy on Arlington street.

We call the attention of our readers to the card of the Greensboro Pressing Club, on third page.

A. B. High returned to the city this morning from his home in Roanoke, where he spent Christmas.

Kaufmann, under the Benbow, has a full stock of everything in gents' furnishings. See his ad on this page.

Miss Lessie Alsbaugh, of Winston, arrived in the city at noon today, to visit the Misses Carraway on Cedar street.

E. L. Tate, the job printer, gives figures and facts in his ad today.
Give him a trial. He guarantees satisfaction.

Matthews, Chisholm, Stroud & Rankin advertise broken lots of underwear at very low prices, also white and colored shirts.

The Simpson-Shields Shoe Co. is moving into its new quarters, the handsome granite front building, recently completed.

Mayor Taylor disposed of only one case yesterday afternoon—two boys charged with scrapping, and their fun cost them $5.00 each.

The goods advertised in McDuffie's big space are not confined alone to the holiday season, but are good alike for every day in the year.

Rev. J. W. Lee, the Irish evangelist, returned to his home today, after about twelve months absence. He has been preaching in Georgia and Florida.

Miss Bessie Epler, of Baltimore, who has been in Spartanburg, S. C., for some time, is spending the afternoon in the city with Miss Ada Thomas, and will go home tonight.

Prof. D. M. Weatherly, principal of the Carthage Academic Institute, spent last night in the city, and left this morning for Chapel Hill. He is an old Guilford boy and has many friends here who are always delighted to see him.

The numerous friends of Mr. C. M.
Vanstony, of the well known and popular clothing firm, will regret to know that he is yet confined to his home by sickness, though he is gradually improving. We hope soon to see his smiling face and genial presence at the store again.

The Choral Union.

At the last meeting of the choral union, plans were made to get up some kind of a concert to be given in the spring. A committee was appointed to select some suitable choral work to study and some music has been ordered from which to make a selection.
The practices will be begun with the new year, though the first half hour will be devoted to instrumental study as heretofore.

DRUMMERS' ANNUAL BANQUET.

At the Piney Woods Inn at Southern Pines, N. C.

Piney Woods Inn at Southern Pines, N. C., the winter health resort has opened for the winter season and announces the annual banquet in honor of the commercial travelers, to be held at the hotel Monday evening Jan. 9th.

During the past two years these banquets have been a pronounced success and it is the aim of the commercial traveler to so arrange his route that he may be present on that occasion.
Manager St. John always gives the traveler the glad hand of welcome and the spread which he prepares for the boys is a most bounteous one, and we doubt not but that the annual reunion this year, like those of former occasions, will be one of pleasure long to be remembered.

Brevard School Remembered.

That was a graceful and praiseworthy act on the part of the officials of Centenary Sunday school in having a Christmas entertainment for the benefit of the Brevard Epworth school.
Instead of the usual custom of spending the money in a Christmas treat for the Sunday school children it was used in providing a box of good things for the children in the Brevard school. While it was no doubt disappointing to some of the children here who are not old enough to realize or feel the blessings of making a sacrifice, the children in their mountain school home were made to rejoice in the liberal gifts of unknown friends.

We Are Not Selling Coal,

but we can sell you a vase in which to keep it (very handsome or very cheap, as you prefer), a grate in which to burn it, shovel and tongs with which to handle it, a poker with which to poke it, or a plain old hod in which to bring it up from the cellar.

When People Talk

enthusiastically of something they have purchased in these days of Bargains,

It MUST Amount to Something

Our store has been overcrowded the past week. Why did they buy here? This is a problem easy to solve: Because The Fishplate-Katz Company gave the people the Best Bargains for the Least Money. But last week's wonderful selling must continue, therefore we have again marked down some of our finest and best clothing at the same low prices. The past week men bought and told their friends, and their friends bought, and so on.

HERE IS THE REASON—Your Money Back in a Minute, if You Wish.

ALL OVER.

The Great Manufacturer's Sale Of Clothing has come to the conclusion that 200 and 300 Suits and Overcoats of one kind is too enormous a quantity to sell in 30 days and decided to cut the prices so deep that they run off at double speed, and here they go:

$20.00 Suits	for $8.50	$ 7.50 Suits	for $3.00
17.50 Suits	for 6.00	6.50 Suits	for 2.50
16.00 Suits	for 5.00	15.00 Overcoats	for 6.00
13.50 Suits		12.00 Overcoats	for 4.50

All these goods were just received, but dare not tarry long with us. Our motto: First come first served.
You had better be first to get your right size.
